

24-hour Rule of Law Webathon

The Law Society is joining forces with the UIA, ABA SIL, AIJA HRC and others to organise a 24-hour webathon dedicated to addressing the challenges to the rule of law worldwide.

The Rule of Law is the fabric of society. It safeguards human rights, contributes to economic opportunities, ensures sustainable development and protects fundamental freedoms.

There will be 12 rule of law panels from across the globe streamed live from a YouTube channel. The UK will kick off the webathon with a Rule of Law Colloquium.

Scheduled live streams

Date: Tuesday 4 May

Time: 3-5pm (UK)

Join us online

The Law Society

The UK Colloquium

We will discuss the rule of law and the importance for Strong Judiciaries, the significance for Foreign Policy, the impact on Economic Development, the relevance for Tackling Corruption and the effects of the Pandemic.

Discussants include: Law Society President I. Stephanie Boyce, The Rt. Hon. Justice Robin Knowles CBE, HHJ. Joanna Korner CMG QC of the International Criminal Court, FCDO Legal Adviser Sir Ian Macleod, Former Lord Mayor of London and former Law Society President Dame Fiona Woolf, Lexis Nexis Executive Vice-President and General Counsel Ian McDougall.

Moderated by: Christoph Sicking, EBRD Deputy General Counsel and Chair of the Law Society's International Committee.