ABA INTERNATIONAL LAW SECTION

2024 FALL CONFERENCE

100

Tradition,
Innovation and Influence

November 13-15, 2024 | Inner Temple and Middle Temple, London, United Kingdom

EARLY BIRD DISCOUNTS END OCTOBER 1! RATES INCREASE $100 ON OCTOBER 2.

On the centenary of the first American Bar Association meeting in the United Kingdom, this conference will celebrate 100 years of ABA visits to the UK. Join us to compare the interaction between innovation and tradition in law and its practice in the UK and the U.S. We will explore areas such as class actions and litigation funding, merger control, regulatory regimes, as well as rules of professional responsibility and the scope of attorney-client privilege.

This historic event is expected to bring together 200+ participants from around the world. Network and learn the latest on business law, competition law, dispute resolution, intellectual property, legal ethics, practice of law management, private wealth management, and trade and sanctions.

Hear from:

- The Right Hon Lord Lloyd-Jones, Justice, United Kingdom Supreme Court
- Lord (John) Thomas, Lord Chief Justice of England and Wales (ret); President, Qatar International Court
